About Abby

Short Bio

Abby Salinas is a Christian speaker, author, and the voice behind End Times Watchwoman — a ministry dedicated to spiritual discernment, biblical preparedness, and helping believers navigate an increasingly uncertain world. With a calm, grounded approach rooted in Scripture, Abby equips her growing community to remain spiritually alert, unmoved by fear, and anchored in truth. She is the author of The Sealed Ones.

Full Bio

Abby Salinas came to her calling through a deep personal encounter with Scripture and a growing conviction that believers need to be both spiritually prepared and practically equipped for the times ahead. What began as personal study became a public mission — and End Times Watchwoman was born. Through her podcast, Substack, YouTube channel, and social media platforms, Abby reaches thousands of faith-filled men and women who are hungry for truth without sensationalism. Her message is not one of fear, but of readiness — drawing from biblical prophecy, discernment teaching, and real-world preparedness. She is based in Minnesota and is available to speak at churches, women's groups, conferences, and podcasts both in-person and virtually worldwide.
